

Environments & workpointe

An Insidesource Company

April 14, 2025

We're excited to announce that Workpointe Portland has merged with Environments | An Insidesource Company, serving the Oregon & SW Washington Market.

Environments | An Insidesource Company is a premier Allsteel dealer and preeminent collaborator with design firms, offering human-centered design solutions, workplace strategy, and service expertise to clients in a range of sectors, including corporate office, public sector, hospitality, and healthcare.

Workpointe delivers comprehensive commercial interior solutions across the Pacific Northwest, with specialized expertise serving K12 and Higher Education accounts.

This newly merged entity within Insidesource is positioned for long-term success, ensuring clients receive best-in-class service, access to industry-leading products, and a commitment to sustainable solutions. As this transition unfolds, our companies remain committed to transparency and collaboration, ensuring a smooth and seamless client experience.
